ALL OF THEM REGULARS

Representative Lawrence of Massachusetts Is a Member—Dalsell and Smith of the Old Committee Are Also Named.Washington, D. C., March 24.—With only the friendliest sort of rivalry, the Republican caucus last night selected the six members of the rules committee apportioned to the Republican majority of the House. The following are the members of the "regular" wing of the party who were chosen:Walter I. Smith of Iowa, 168 votes.
John Dalsell, Pennsylvania, 148.
George P. Lawrence of Massachusetts, 126.J. Sloan Fassett, New York, 113.
Syvester C. Smith, California, 136.
Henry S. Doolittle, Illinois, 108.Two ballots were taken, the four first named receiving a majority of the votes cast on the first ballot and the two last named being chosen on the second ballot.The six members named represent a state prepared by Representative Tawney of Minnesota during the day, after unanimous conference with both regulars and insurgents.The vote in the caucus was taken by written ballot, each member writing the names of six men for whom he desired to vote. There were nineteen names placed in nomination, and a large number besides those received complimentary votes. Representative Gardner of Massachusetts received 33 votes, the highest number cast for any insurgent.The members will rank on the enlarged rules committee according to their seniority of service, which will give the chairmanship to Dalsell.The insurgents appeared to be satisfied, although one of the most radical ones who cast their ballot for Speaker Cannon's deposition last Saturday expressed themselves on the subject.

LANDIS TO TRY PACKERS?

Cattle Are Now on His Calendar, but He Is Said to Be Undecided.Chicago, March 24.—The twenty-seven firms and individuals accused by the government in its suit to dissolve the National Packing company, have been served with summonses directing them to appear in the court in response to the charges. At the same time the criminal case involving the National Packing company and the ten constituent companies, which were indicted by the federal grand jury, was placed on the calendar of Judge Landis of the federal court.
It is said Judge Landis is undecided whether to sit in the case.

POULTRY TRUST INDICTMENTS.

New York Grand Jury Returns Many Bills.New York, March 24.—Thirty to thirty-five indictments, it was learned yes-heads of the poultry trust in this city by the grand jury, which has been investigating the charges that the poultry men conspired to fix prices and extort unfair rates from the public.

same prison for their part in the conspiracy to fix the price of oleo margarine.

Often The Kidneys Are

Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, and for the general debility which is often the result of kidney trouble. It is difficult to permit to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys must, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit.The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been ing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.

BARS ALONG BOUNDARYOffers Intermediate Rates to the United States on Certain Articles as an Inducement to Reciprocity.Montreal, March 24.—Fears of tariff war with the United States are no longer held here. Although no definite statement has been made, there is something in the air which calms apprehension of other than friendly relations with our neighbors. Mr. Fielding's visit to the president of the United States seems to have brought about the present state of feeling.The papers which have been most emphatic in their assertion of Canada's ability to take care of herself are now discussing the tariff situation in a spirit more favorable to friendly adjustment. Even the Toronto Mail and Express discusses with calm the possibility of Canada making some concessions.
That Canada will concede something is probable. So far as can be learned from sources near to the government, Mr. Fielding went to Albany with authority to offer to put some of the imports from the United States upon the intermediate tariff list. Whatever is yielded in this way will be upon assurances from President Taft, that his administration will at once urge upon Congress the passage of legislation for reciprocity between the two countries as to trade in many natural products.

"BATTERY DAN" FINN DEAD.

Well-Known New York City Magistrate and Prominent Figure in Politics.New York, March 24.—City Magistrate Daniel E. Finn, popularly known as "Battery Dan," a unique and well-known figure in New York political life, died yesterday afternoon at his home here after a long illness.Early this year, just before his last illness, proceedings had been begun against "Battery Dan" looking to his removal on charges of neglect, in 192 cases, to hold persons for trial when it was clear a crime had been committed.
The hearing was set for Feb. 17, but the magistrate was too ill even to receive the service of the papers. The courtroom was full, when it was announced that the proceedings would be postponed. As one of the old followers of "Battery Dan" jumped out of the court house, he said:
"Poor Dan—I knew him as boy and man these many years. If he had any faults his friends never discovered them and many an enemy learned to love him.
His head never got too big for his hat with the boys, and his honor, the judge, was the same as 'Battery Dan.' If he lives he will beat the case and shame those who began it; and if he dies, he will have the biggest funeral ever seen on the lower end of the town."

TAX REPORTS TO BE SECRET.

May Be Published Only When the President Deems It for Public Interest.Washington, March 24.—Through the efforts of Senator Hale, a provision has been incorporated in the legislative appropriation bill, requiring that the reports required by the corporation tax provision in the tariff act shall be made public only upon the order of the president, when he deems it for the public interest. The secretary of the treasury is directed to formulate rules and regulations for classifying, indexing and exhibiting the reports of any information therefrom, which the rules and regulations shall be approved by the president. Thousands of despatches have come from all sections of the country especially from New England states, urgently requesting such legislation.

GOV. PROUTY A SPEAKER

Nearly a Hundred Men in the Delegation —Secretary Knox Says That the Negotiations Are Progressing.Washington, March 24.—Representative Alexander of Buffalo headed a large delegation, representing the white pine interests, the grain interests and nearly all of the mining concerns from Duluth to the Atlantic ocean on the Canadian border, that called upon Secretary Knox yesterday to present a combined appeal to him to avert a tariff war with Canada.
Mr. Alexander pointed out that a trade of over $200,000,000 was involved. Governor George H. Prouty of Vermont made an eloquent plea in behalf of the New England interests which will be adversely affected by the application of the maximum tariff to Canadian products with the certain result in the way of retaliation of the imposition by Canada of a 33-1-3 per cent. sur-tax on American products, which would surely bar them from entry into Canada. Various phases of the matter were set out at length by the speakers, who were listened to with great interest by Secretary Knox. When they had concluded, the secretary informed the delegation, which numbered nearly a hundred persons, that while his official position and the state of negotiations with Canada prevented him from discussing the subject with as much freedom as he would like, still he felt that he might assure them that the negotiations were progressing and that they should not feel unduly alarmed at the prospects. The delegation left the state department very much relieved in mind.

TAFT'S JOURNEY ENDED.

ing, reaching the Union station at 7:15 fatigued from his journey, he did not leave his private car until eight o'clock.

put up a losing fight in general ses-to answer the charge of a fellow member of the African race, Norman Pinder, who accuses Johnson of a serious assault, the big pugilist found himself the object of the court's displeasure, because the complainant against him failed non-appearance of Pinder and the other witnesses in the case convinced him that the court was being trifled with, raised Johnson's bail from $1,500 to $5,000, committing him to the Tombs until he raised the larger amount.Johnson, at first smilingly, then almost tearfully, pleaded his case with the court."I'm here," he said; "I've shown good faith. I came here on an 18-hour train from Chicago to get here on time. If you'll make the bail $3,000, I'll put it up."Although he declared that he had not trifled with the court and knew nothing about the disappearance of any witnesses in the case, Johnson could not remained, ordered bench warrants to be

NOW COMES THE TRIALS

The Pittsburg Sensation—The Grand Jurors Listened to Stories Which Made Them
Gasp.Pittsburg, March 24.—Nine more councilman grafters confessed their guilt to Judge Robert S. Frazer yesterday.
No more confessions will be received.
Those caught in the public prosecutor's dragnet from now on, it is said, will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. At noon twenty-nine former and present members of the municipal legislative machine of the city of Greater Pittsburg had received immunity at the hands of a lenient judge and diligent prosecuting attorneys.With the full confession of two of the ringleaders of the graft councils of 1908 and the confession of William Brand, former president of common councils, expected hourly, material is in the hands of the district attorney to indict many more persons for grafting. These indictments, it is reported, will bring into the graft crusade bankers, real estate men and manufacturers in this vicinity.Joseph C. Wasson, now a convict and formerly a select councilman, Capt. John Klein, formerly councilman and now under penitentiary sentence, and Brand, also convicted grafter, are the men upon whom the district attorney is relying for his final probe into municipal rottenness.Wasson and Klein both appeared before the grand jury during the day, and, it was reported, completed an amazing tale of small and large graft, which made their auditors gasp.Wasson's statement is said to name bankers and others connected with the passage of bank and street vacation ordinances and to also cover what he knew of other shady transactions in councils, now being investigated by the district attorney.During Wasson's detention in the rooms of the district attorney, mortification over his predicament was plainly discernible in the countenance of the former political chieftain.

UNION CHIEF IN TROUBLE.

After Being Driven Out of Rumford Falls, Asked to Leave Franklin, N. H.Franklin, N. H., March 24.—The machinery of the city government was employed unexpectedly yesterday to prevent a strike of International Paper mill employees here and to restrain John H.
Malin, president of the international sub-plite, pulp and paper mill workers' union, from exerting his influence with the members of the local union to leave their places. Malin was escorted out of Rumford Falls, Me., where he attempted to urge a strike in sympathy with the New York employees of the company, early Tuesday, and arrived here Tuesday night. A heavy meeting of the union was called, and while it was in progress Mayor Sawyer summoned a special session of the city council.President Malin was summoned before the council and said that he intended to abide by the law. He said he came here to induce the employees of the company to give the strikers in New York pecuniary support.The city council adopted a resolution expressing the opinion that as a riot might be the result of President Malin's representations to the mill workers, President Malin, his associates and agents be requested to leave the city.
The resolutions directed the city marshal and his assistants to keep Mr. Malin under constant surveillance and to take any action which the marshal might consider necessary.

tax case of the town of Essex vs. L. H.
Roscoe was begun in county court yesterday afternoon, being the fact that wide publicity has been given the case through the newspapers and elsewhere, it was some time before a satisfactory jury was empaneled. Allen Martin of Essex, and C. B. Darling represent the plaintiff and C. S. Palmer and V. A. Bullard, the defendant. The plaintiff seeks to recover taxes assessed upon the grand list of 1909 of the Roscoe printing plant, which Mr. Roscoe refused to pay. The defendant claims that by a vote of the town of Essex in 1906, this plant was exempted from taxation, and that for two years he paid no taxes on the same.The jury in the case of Addie Coffey vs. Marshall Rogers, where the plaintiff sought to recover from the defendant, her brother, for services as housekeeper, returned a verdict for the plaintiff to recover her damages and costs of $300.29.

BUYING A HORSE

More Suggestions by Dr. A.
C. Daniels, Inc.

If the foot is lifted straight up and quickly, lameness in hind foot or hock; remember the hip drops opposite to the lame side. Thus, if the nodding of the head and the dropping of the hip be on the left side, look for lameness on the right. The reverse of these movements shows lameness on the other side, so it is not so hard to tell in which leg the lameness. Fore foot swung around sort of half circle near the ground, lameness is probably in elbow or shoulders, six or eight inches high. Lead him to step over some obstacle. If he steps over it is not shoulder lameness. If the toe is brought down first, look for sidebone, sprain of back sinews, sprain of suspensory ligaments, scurvy disease, shoulder lameness or hip-joint lameness.
If the foot is brought down heel first, look for founder, seedytoe, ringbone, stille joint lameness. If, when you first drive out, little lameness or perhaps none, but increases or appears, look for spine, sore shins, sidebones or knee-joint lameness. When considerably lame at starting, but seems to wear away, look for navicular, grogginess, rheumatism, etc. When trotting along straight, no lameness is noticed, but in turning quickly it appears prominent, spring hock or sprained hock.Having located the lameness in a certain limb does not always make it an easy matter to say where in that limb lies the trouble, but it is well to remember this one fact—the foot has much greater liability to lameness than any other portion of the limb; hence, no matter what your final conclusions may be, stick to the foot until you are positiveNo matter how much one may know of or about horses, it is safe to secure a good and proper warrant with the horse you purchase from the seller. The warrant should contain specific statements as to condition or defects and a perfect understanding as to what is understood regarding "Sound in every respect" should be stated therein. When one is trading, this cannot be expected, and one must rely upon personal judgment and knowledge when swapping horses.
Next article will be on "How to Tell the Age of the Horse."(Dr. Daniels' articles on domestic animals appear every Thursday.)

DRIVING JEWS FROM RUSSIA.

American Committee Charges Ministry with Responsibility.New York, March 24.—The American Jewish committee, it was learned yesterday, received news by cable from a trustworthy source in Berlin, that the expulsion of Jews from various cities in Russia has reached a magnitude never heretofore attained. Whereas formerly, even in Von Plehve's time, those threatened with expulsion by the aspirations of local governors were able to get protection through the ministry itself from which the orders for the expulsions emanate. At present, according to the news received here, hundreds of families, who have lived for decades in Kieff, Riga, Kases and Woronesch, are being driven out.
